

From: Scott Collins
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 9:13am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I wish to express my dismay over the proposed settlement of the antitrust case against Microsoft. I cannot condone any outcome of this case which fails to punish a rapacious and unrepentant monopolist in any way. Please consign this proposal to the dustbin of history and proceed with the prosecution of this criminal organization.

Thank you for your time and attention.

--

Scott Collins "BSD and Linux aren't 'what you see is what you spike@aint.com get' so much as 'what you get is what you asked for, good and hard, and you deserve it'."

-- Dan Sorenson